1. ) Introduction

As already announced our common demand will be presented in a Europe-wide day of action. It should be a kind of symbolical action which will happen simultaneously in as many European cities as possible. It should be combined with a media conference and photo-shooting for the national/local media. We will try to get a press coverage in the big international media as well using the photos of all the events which happened all over Europe.

2.) Message and target

The ERC supported by more than 320 NGOs from 30 countries representing more than 5 million members activated its network for a Europe-wide simultaneous event which took place in 52 European cities within 19 countries and 15 capital cities among them. The event wants to make a point towards the heads of governments who will meet in Rome: They shall agree upon holding referenda in all countries concerned by the EU constitution.
