1. ) Day of Action: 20 countries ?!

Our message will be presented in the streets of Europe. Activists from 18 countries are already planning actions for next Saturday. Three other countries may join this group. See:

- 2.) Day of Action: Photos needed ...

The day of action will be presented on our famous website. It will be an evidence for the wish of the Europeans to decide about their future. THEREFORE WE NEED GOOD PHOTOS FROM THE ACTION IN EACH COUNTRY.

- 3.) Belgian Parliament will decide soon on referendum

Guy Verhofstadt, Prime Minister of Belgium, is clearly in favour of a referendum on the EU-Constitution in his country. According to a speech, held on Tuesday in Berlin, the Belgian Parliament will vote on this issue in January or February 2004.

- 4.) Swedish greens launch referendum petition

The Swedish Green party has started a petition to hold a referendum on the European Constitution, in a bid to put pressure on the government which has said Swedes will not vote on the matter.
