

Newsletter: Europe debates referendums

April 29, 2005

Content:

- 1) DEMOCRACY INTERNATIONAL MEETING
 - 2) EUROPE DEBATES REFERENDUMS
-

1) DEMOCRACY INTERNATIONAL MEETING

We will meet in Brussels on May 21 (9 - 17).

Program

French Referendum: How would a "no" in France influence our projects?

European Citizens' Initiative: Achievements, what are the next steps?

Development of further projects improving direct democracy in the EU

Fair referendums on the EU constitution: Monitoring process

Further discussion of our Foundation Statement

Participation

Please let us know until May 6 if you want to participate and need an accommodation.

Contact

For reservation and further information contact Carsten Berg

berg (at) democracy-international.org

++ 32 479 694 117

2) EUROPE DEBATES REFERENDUMS

Europe is discussing the consequences of a rejection of the EU Constitution in France. In the meantime the Greek and the Italian Parliament have ratified the constitution. Bulgaria is discussing plans to hold a referendum on the EU accession. Please find an overview in our news section:

democracy-international.org/41.html

Ronald Pabst / Carsten Berg

TO UNSUBSCRIBE FROM THIS NEWSLETTER CLICK HERE AND FOLLOW THE INSTRUCTIONS:

democracy-international.org/newsletter.html